Duties of the First Vice President (revised 2020)

"The First Vice-President shall serve as program chairperson and shall perform all duties of the President in the President's absence. The First Vice-President is responsible for the Fall Brunch and Spring Luncheon.

Fall Brunch:

April/May

- Since 2014, the Chancellor's wife has hosted us at the Geisel House. However, events at Geisel House can only by hosted by the Chancellor and his associate. We should not ask yearly if the Chancellor's Associate will host us. Contact Claire Hopkins for the date, and how we can assist.
- If the event is not at University House, follow the procedure for the Spring Luncheon.
- When choosing the date for the Brunch, try to not choose a date when "Live from The Met" is in theaters. Many members buy season tickets to these showings.

May/June

- If the event is not held at University House, when arrangements for the dates, costs and venue are known prepare a mailing to be included in the membership renewal letter. Include it in the mailing. Members should respond to you, and including payment if required.
- Ask the Second Vice-President in charge of membership for submission dates for this letter, and provide her with the necessary copies.

September:

If the Fall Brunch is at Audrey Geisel University House

- . Claire Hopkins will tell you how members will be invited. Prepare the front page of the newsletter announcing the Brunch date and details, There should be a line to indicate if the member needs a ride.

- At the September Board meeting enlist members for assistance where needed.

1. University House prepares name tags. Two volunteers to man the check-in table and give out the nametags.
2. . If Undergrad scholarship winners are to be invited, someone needs to contact Jennifer Leighton, Associate Director for Scholarship Programs. She will invite them.

The luncheon is usually held on the second Thursday in May.

September (or earlier)

- Reserve the venue. They will require a deposit which you will obtain from the Treasurer.
- As soon as you know the date, publish "Save the Date" in the Oceanids Newsletter. Give Rosie Enright information regarding the luncheon for the cover of the March-April Oceanids News. The front page should have a coupon on the bottom for members to clip and mail with their check. There should be a line to indicate if the member needs a ride.

January

- Arrange for a guest speaker.

Spring Luncheon

February

- Get the names of the graduate fellowship holders from the Board member in charge of Graduate Scholarships. Invite these students to come to the lunch and present their research. They can bring poster boards if they have them from other presentations.

March

- Send the newsletter editor the invitation for the brunch. It should appear on the front page of the April/May newsletter. The front page should have a coupon on the bottom for members to clip and mail with their check. There should be a line to indicate if the member needs a ride.

April

- Recruit Board volunteers:

    1. Publicity/website officer publicize the event.
    2. Ask a volunteer to prepare the name tags.
    3. Two volunteers to man the check-in table and give out the nametags.
    4. Volunteers to bring dessert.
    5. Volunteers for Grab and Go table if you are having that.
- Visit the venue, if necessary, to decide on setup and menu.

May

- At the Board meeting, decide on the program (order and timing).
- Purchase flowers for the guest speaker and President.
- Purchase flowers for the tables.
- If you get something like orchids for the table, they can be sold at a price marked up just enough to cover their cost and the gift flowers.
- Arrange with the Treasurer for final payment. If the Treasurer is coming to the lunch, he/she can bring a check.
